**IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ - PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES**

Authorities in the United Kingdom and the USA have released advice that passengers on some routes may be required to show that personal electronic devices are sufficiently charged prior to boarding. Passengers who don't meet these requirements face confiscation of devices and possible cancellation of their booking.

It is possible this restriction may extend to additional countries in the short term. To prevent any confiscation of property or decreased productivity, Corporate Traveller strongly recommends you charge all personal electronic devices prior to travel.
